“ I will miss the lady that stepped in and was a second mom to me and my baby sister while mom worked. The family has always been a part of my family. Family Isn't blood, it's love and she had it in spades.
Until we see you again, we love you Patsy.
GOD bless you all!!!!!!

“ Pat and her entire family were a huge part of the Dutch Bottoms/Rankin Hill Road community when I was growing up in the 1970s/1980s. Mom still lives there next to Allen.

In the summertime, it was hard to tell where one yard ended and the other began as we would be running, playing and biking back and forth all day. I have so many wonderful memories of Pat and her family. She was a lovely lady.

With our love and deepest sympathy,

Jeff and Lainey Howard

Dorothy Howard (mom is not online but wanted the family to know she is thinking of you and sending love and prayers)
