“ There's so many memories I could tell about that my favorite ones would be him, quizzing me on the Bible and him believing in me and pushing me to become a godly woman and that night on my back porch, 9 years go him telling me that God told him I was gonna be a leader in a recovery program and how proud of you was of me and you love me every time he seen me with his big old smile.. I'm praying for you guys and love y'all
