

Alfred Hogan

October 3, 1938 - December 26, 2021

Alfred Hogan age 83, went to be with the Lord, Sunday, December 26, 2021 surrounded by his loved ones. He was a loving and devoted father, husband and son, and a friend to all who knew him. He loved children and he was a teacher/principal, beginning with a one room school house in Barnes Valley, principal at Hartford Elementary and teacher at Edgemont for a total of 38 years with Cocke County Schools. He was then elected and served 12 years as the Trustee of Cocke County. He was a devoted lifelong Christian and loved working with his family and friends in the church. He devoted his summers for many years helping organize and conduct Vacation Bible Schools for numerous Churches around the County.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 52 years, Phyllis Greene Hogan, his parents Grady and Mary Brown Hogan, his sister Lucille Hogan McGaha. He is survived by his four children Anthony Hogan of Nashville, Belinda Hogan Alley (husband Michael), Christopher Hogan (wife Wendy), Denise Hogan Caughran (husband David). He has five grandchildren, Andy Hogan (wife Brianna), Jonathan, Jarred, and Mikayla Alley, and Noah Caughran. Service at Manes Funeral Home on Wednesday December 29th at 7 pm with Glen Franklin, Jon Walton, and Chad Webb officiating. Burial at 11 am on December 30th at Clark Cemetery in Hartford. Pallbearers will be David Dorsey, Andy Hogan, Jonathan Alley, Jarred Alley, Noah Caughran, and Cale Whitten. Honary Pallbearer will be Charles Elmer Phillips. The family will receive friends from 4 to 7 pm on Wednesday prior to the funeral service.

“ I met Alfred when I was 15 and attended Mt.Zion church in grassyfork with him and his wife and four children. The entire family are wonderful people who were always good to me. Alfred was one of the funniest and nicest men I've ever known. I'm so thankful that I got to know such a wonderful man. This cruel world would be a better place if all men were like Alfred. He will never be forgotten.
