“ My Deepest Condolences to Alice Phillip's family..Alice was our neighbor and bus driver when we lived on Mt. Sterling...she'd stop at the little country store at the bottom of the mountain, let us out so we could buy either a pop or candy..we were poor and didn't have much money, any kids that stayed on the bus cause they didn't have any change..she'd reach in her pocket and give us some so we too could buy some penny candy back then..such a sweet kind soul..I think she was the last of the older ones left on the mountain..fly with the Angel's Alice..you earned your wings <3
