Alvin Manley “Bebo” Fox

09/08/1953 - 01/25/2023

Alvin Manley “Bebo” Fox, 69, of Parrottsville, Tennessee, “trucked” his last road, the road to heaven, on Wednesday, January 25, 2023. Bebo was a truck driver all his life, but he spent the last few years doing what he loved most, watching Nascar and being the best Papaw he could be to grandchildren, Taylor and Braxtin, whom he loved beyond measure. He was known for his “Fox” stubbornness and witty sense of humor.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Rosa Cloud Fox; wife: Linda “Sue” Bugg Fox;

Brothers, J Clarence “Bud” Fox, Henry “Booge” Fox, and Claude Fox; sisters: Helen “Ruth” France, Carrie Stepp, Margaret Shultz, Shirley Smith, Charlotte Trent, and Glenda Wells.

Survived by his daughter, Amanda (Michael) Turner of Parrottsville; a son, Alvin “Bo” Fox of Newport; a granddaughter, Taylor Turner; grandsons, Braxtin Turner and Destin Potter; and three sisters, Betty (Allen) Manning, Frances Tolliver and Brenda Fox; as well as dozens of nieces and nephews.

Alvin chose not to have a service. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Manes Funeral Home in Newport, Tennessee.

Family and friends may sign the guest register online at: www.manesfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements by Manes Funeral Home.

“ I wish that I could have been there to see you. I love and miss you and am grateful for all the birthday wishes, Veterans Day wishes, and occasional messages to just say "Hi Sis. I love you" which always made my day! I miss you terribly and the way you could tell funny stories of how things were when we were growing up. You could always make me laugh! May God bless and keep you!

“ Alvin was one of a kind. I loved working with him at Renner Trucking. He was such a good friend to my late husband and was there for me and the kids when he passed 15 years ago. I know that he loved those grandbabies. Prayers and love for all the family. Keep the Jake Brake on and keep on Trucking Bebo!
