“ I am truly so sad to hear about the passing of Amy!!! She was one of the kindest, sweetest, funniest, most unique people I have come to know. I got the pleasure of working with Amy and her sister Brittany a few years ago, and both are AMAZING humans that are a blessing to this Earth (actually, all 3 sisters are, even tho I came to know Carrie thru them and photos later on). We always used to joke with Amy that she had such a sarcastic humor about herself, even when she didn't mean to have it. She could make anyone laugh without meaning to do so... that was just her!!! And even tho it has been years since I had seen Amy, this still hurts so bad to find out about... so I can only imagine how her sweet family is feeling right now!?! To Brittany, Carrie, her Momma, her 2 beautiful daughters, and anyone else that loved Amy dearly... I am so very sorry for the loss you all are dealing with at this time!!! I know it is a HUGE one, and a hard one to swallow!?! My prayers and wishes for comfort are with each and every one of you in these present moments and the many that will come. I pray that God wraps his loving arms of comfort around each and every one or you all. And I am sure that with the kind, loving heart that Amy had, God has welcomed her into Heaven to be at peace forever more... it just hurts for all that remain here that love her. I am so sorry that you all are dealing with this, and I truly wish this was not the case. I cannot imagine what yall are going thru, because I myself am still in shock hearing about this, and wish I could have ran into her at least one more time to hug her and laugh with her with her random jokes (she literally always made me laugh, and I will forever remember that about her)!!! Sending each of you that were close with her, hugs, love, and many prayers. I know for a fact how special Amy was and what a blessing she was to anyone that had an opportunity to know her. This will be a hard loss for the world to deal with!!! Amy... you are truly a special human that will be missed by anyone that was blessed with the chance to know you!!! Fly high sweet girl, and watch over all the many people that loved you and care about you so very much!!! Again... I am so sorry for the hurt anyone that loved her is feeling at this moment. Sending yall love and hugs!!!
