“ Though I haven't seen Anita in many years, thoughts of our days at Burger Chef, in the mid 70's, often come into my mind. I can just hear that sweet infectious giggle. She often would laugh at the way I said her name. She would say Wanda, it is Anita not Annnita. I Will always cherish those memories and that one if a kind giggle. Many prayers to each one of you who knew her, because if you knew her I know you loved her. See you again in heaven my sweet friend. 🙏❤️

“ Anita knew I loved her..Before the virus hit our country Debbie and I made many visits to visit her. WE would laugh talking about our childhood. She was so glad that God let her take care of her mom. But, during all this sickness she was a fighter until the end. She was one of the founding members of Bridgeport FWB Church. Anita is now in Heaven with family that had gone on before her..And one day I know I will see her again. Her last words she spoke was I'M GOING HOME! and she did. I will miss you cousin forever.
