“ Love you Aunt Barb, You have been healed in the presence of God. I'll never forget you and advice you had given me. I remember following you around playing as a kid, breaking my leg when we played follow the leader...lol. I remember your laugh could light up the room. I remember you called when Nate was bad sick and docs could do no more and I wouldn't accept that, you begged me to take him to Vanderbilt which resulted in the help he needed. Some of our last conversations after the sickness and how you trusted in God's will. Scott and Summer, I am praying for you and that God comforts you and gives you peace and joy of the memories she gave. Sending love to you both. Jamie

“ Aunt Barb, I remember borrowing your heels while you were at work running through the house driving mama and pawpaw crazy with sound of heels on the hardwood, and changing into your clothes over and over. I felt like I was a princess, and oh how i loved the smell of your perfume and even though you came home and saw how much I wasted you looked at me and wrapped your arms around me and we laughed so hard. You were my roll model. We were all blessed to have your beautiful heart and soul in our lives. And as we all go looking through pictures and Facebook memories of you we will all see someone amazing, your beautiful daughter Summer and the sweetest man of your life your husband Scott, and when I see those two i see you. I Love you aunt Barb and can't wait till we meet again. Give mama and pawpaw and Jeff a hug and kiss for me.
Love, Michelle

“ I'm so sorry Scott and Summer. I know you both are devastated right now. I never was around Barbara that much but when I was she was always laughing, she had an infectious laugh. And even though I didn't witness it myself but would have loved to was the time she and Jimmy danced in the parking lot of Bybee Mkt. when you all had some kind of party there. Jimmy really liked her.
