

Barbara Jean Dixon

January 11, 1971 - January 31, 2025

Barbara Jean Dixon (Hartley), 54, of Newport, Tennessee, passed away on January 31, 2025. Born on January 11, 1971, in Jacksonville, Florida, Barbara was the beloved daughter of the late Ethel Lee Salters and James Hartley. Barbara was a devoted single mother who cherished her children above all else. She is survived by her son, De'Onte Thomas, and her daughter, Leah Adams, who were the center of her world. Her unwavering love and dedication to them were evident in every aspect of her life. Barbara always ensured that her children came first and instilled in them the values of love, faith, and resilience.

Barbara's family extended beyond her children to include her siblings Gregory Salters, Brenda Salters-Singleton, and Willie Mae Williams. She was also a loving aunt to Chiquita Mosley, Keiona Salters, Tony Daniels, and Isaiah Daniels. Her warmth and kindness touched the lives of many loved great-nieces and great-nephews as well. She was predeceased by her sister Debroah Daniels.

Known for her selflessness and infectious sense of humor, Barbara had a unique ability to bring joy to those around her. Whether through a kind word or a shared laugh, she made it her mission to brighten the lives of others. Her deep appreciation for friends and family was evident in the way she nurtured relationships and created lasting memories with those she held dear.

Barbara's faith was an integral part of who she was. She carried her spiritual beliefs close to her heart and lived a life guided by love and compassion. Her legacy will be remembered not only for the smiles she brought but also for the strength of character she demonstrated through her devotion to family and faith.

A celebration of Barbara's life will be organized by her son and daughter at a later date. May Barbara Jean Dixon's memory continue to inspire love and laughter in all who knew her.

“Everyday is a blessed day”

Barbara used to say. I was thinking about you this week and my wife found the bad news online. So sorry for your children. We enjoyed your company, you will be missed but I know you are no longer in pain. Goodbye sweet
