Barbara Jean Duncan was born May 5, 1935 in Newport, Tennessee, the daughter of Martha (Mattie) and Hillery Duncan. Barbara received her Registered Nurse (RN) degree from Fort Sanders School of Nursing in Knoxville, TN and had a long career in nursing, retiring from The University of Tennessee Hospital. After retiring, she returned to Newport and built a home next to her sister, Brenda Griffin, and helped care for their mother. Barbara was a member of the First Families of Tennessee, tracing her heritage to Cocke County before Tennessee became a state. She was also a member of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, having traced her heritage back to a soldier who fought in the American Revolutionary War. An avid reader, she supported and loved the Stokely Memorial Library.

Barbara is preceded in death by her parents, Mattie and Hillery Duncan; her first husband, George Schoene; brother-in-law William Griffin; and sister-in-law, Judy Duncan. She is survived by her children, Danielle, Dale, Dan and his wife Tiffany, and Kelly and her husband Scott; her sister, Brenda Griffin; her brother, Clarence Duncan; three grandchildren, Brittney, Maddi, and Lily; nieces and nephews, plus many other extended family members, and friends, many of whom were as close as family. Special friends included Helen Grooms, Bobbi Clevenger and Maggie Smith.

The family will receive friends at Manes Funeral Home Thursday, June 18, 2009 between 5 and 7 pm. A graveside service will be held Friday, June 19, 2009 at the Cave Hill Baptist Church cemetery at 11:00 AM. A reception follows in the Fellowship hall to celebrate Barbara's life.
