

Barbara Hagler

February 17, 1935 - October 28, 2023

Barbara Hagler, 88 of Newport, passed away peacefully on October 28, 2023. She was born in Haines City, Florida on February 17, 1935. Along with her husband, she moved to Tennessee in 1993. She soon began working with the Cocke County Board of Education as a bus aide, where she retired in 2020 at the age of 85. She loved her job working with all children, but her heart was with the special needs children she cared for. She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend to many. The love she had for her family was evident and there was nothing she enjoyed more than a gathering of the people she loved the most. She loved the Lord, serving him gladly for over 80 years. She was preceded in death by her parents, Tampa, and Minnie Owens; her husband, James Hagler; siblings, Howard, Doc, Gary Owens, and Nancy Frechette. She is survived by her son, Tommy (Carlyn) Hagler, her daughter Lori (Eddie) Pasternak; sister, Irene Nace; brothers, Roy Owens, and Butch Owens; Grandchildren, Joshua

(Candice) Pasternak, Joel, Jonathan, and Jared Pasternak. Justin (Melinda) Hagler, Jeremy

(Mariette) Hagler, Clay Hagler, Jenna (Zachary) Sammons. Great-grandchildren, Kylar and

Amelia Pasternak, Jack and Sam Crawford, Alexis, Kaitlyn, and Nikki Hagler. Kyra and

Christopher Hagler, and Theo Sammons. A Special thank you to Jefferson Park at Dandridge and their amazing staff.

The family will have a private service to celebrate a life so wonderfully lived followed by a graveside service.

Guests may come by Manes Funeral Home to sign the guest register or online at: www.manesfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements with Manes Funeral Home.

“ Lori, Eddie and family,

We're so sorry to read about your mom's passing. She was a good one.

I know exactly what you're going through. It's something you'll never get over, but God will get you through.

“ I remember when I was really young, maybe around 7 or 8. She was prepping turkey legs and she told me it was a chicken drum stick. I was shocked at how big it was, lol. Another memory Barbara ask me if I wanted to try cracking bread, I told her no way, that I didn't like cracking bread (I never had it before). Ok, I confess I was the one that ate almost the whole pan.

Sorry for your loss Tommy, Carlyn , Lori and Family. Love and miss you all.

*It's late to put up a memory, but I have to do this!
What a prayer warrior! I went to her home one day at lunch because I was hurt so bad in my stomach area, and the word the Holy Ghost gave her to me blew me away. And she was right on! God used her mightily that day in my life, I will never forget her! After that I had a love for her that only me and God knew!
What a tremendous prayer warrior she was.
Lori, Tommy and Butch, I'm so sorry for your loss. Heaven gets sweeter every day.
Love you guys,
