Donna and Carol, Dot and I are so very sorry to learn of Betty's passing,, she was such a beautiful and sweet person. I often think back when she would ride to work with Dot and I, and how sweet and kind she was to Shell and Bart. God Bless your family.

“ Cocke County lost an important piece of World War II history with the death of Betty Bryant. As a teenager she held a clerical position in the county's rationing office. As a young member of the Greatest Generation, she 'did her bit.' To my knowledge she was the last living link to this part of the county's history. She was such a beautiful, gracious lady...a true Southern belle. She will be missed.
