

Betty Jean King

September 22, 1929 - December 2, 2023

Betty Jean King (September 22, 1929 - December 2, 2023)

A beloved and devoted mother, wife, and grandmother went to be with her Lord on December 2, 2023.

Betty Jean taught for nearly 40 years at the old Hartford School where she often walked off the hill from her home to pursue her passion for teaching students to read. Right to the end she remembered fondly, and still called by name, former students and coworkers.

She was preceded in death by her parents Walt and Ima Brown, brother Hal Brown, son Mike Moore, husband and father of her children Manney Moore, and husbands, Mike Cagle and Clell King.

She is survived by her loving daughter Nancy Raines, son in law Dale Raines, daughter in law Janie Moore, stepdaughters Sue (Bill) Mann, Donna(Jack) Henson, and Barbara Jo Croley, stepson Donnie Cagle , grandsons Manney (Liz) and Carter (Renee) Moore, great grandchildren Maggey Moore, Manney Moore II, Katey Moore, Janey Moore, and Carter Moore II. She is also survived by sisters in law Sylvia Brown and Alyce Moore, nephew Russell (Diana) Brown, niece Kelly (David) Miranda, special cousin Tip Brown, Moore family nieces and nephews; Deane, Joann, Lydia, Kathy, Mitzi, Sheri, Gail, Charles Lewis, and Shannon, and so many other friends and family.

Betty Jean had an unwavering love for the Lord and her church family. For 67 years, through the highs and lows of a well lived life, she maintained perfect attendance at her church; first at Pigeon Valley then at First Baptist of Sevierville.

She was a kind and giving person and an outstanding influence on her children, grandchildren and countless others. She will be sorely missed.

The family will receive friends 5 p.m. - 7 p.m. Tuesday, December 5, 2023 at Manes Funeral Home. The funeral service will follow at 7 p.m. in the Manes Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be 11 a.m. Wednesday in Union Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to Cocke County Education Foundation, Pigeon Valley Baptist Church or the First Baptist Church of Sevierville.

Family and friends may sign the guest register online at www.manesfuneralhome.com.

“ Nancy, Manney, Carter, Dean.....And all the family: I am heartbroken for this precious family. Betty was an amazing lady. She always had that beautiful smile, and had the best personality ever. She loved her family and friends unconditionally and will be missed terribly. I loved Betty very much and will never forget her. Many many prayers for the family during the days ahead. I love you Nancy. I am so sorry. God be with you. RIP my friend Betty. 💔

“ Nancy, Manney, Carter, and All:
On 22 September 1929, a beautiful baby girl arrived in the home of Walt and Ima Brown. Over the next 94 years, she grew more beautiful every day, both inside and out. She had close connections with both our families, beginning with the time Kay’s dad bit her when they were toddlers! I came into her orbit over 50 years ago during my days at ETSU with Nancy. Later I came to know Ima and Essie and was privileged to take a 5-generation picture for the Cocks County Banner. With such longstanding connections, we feel the loss of not only a dear friend, but also that of a family member. We loved Betty Jean and will miss her dreadfully. But we rejoice Heaven now has another beautiful angel in residence. We pray for God to give you comfort and peace now and in the coming days.”
