Glenn “Bill” Chambers born July 19, 1943 died December 1, 2021.

Bill attended CCHS and the University of Tennessee, He had just attended his 60th reunion of CCHS with his wonderful classmates. Bill traveled many years for Wallace Hardware and during this time he became acquainted with Wayne Blalock. Bill later joined Wayne and thought of him as a “brother”. Bill loved his workplace and considered each one as family, especially Wayne’s children, Sherry, Mira and Michael.

Bill was preceded in death by his precious sons Robert Glenn Chambers and James Richard Chambers, parents Glenn, Sr., and Eloise Chambers, his beloved mother in law Dolly Harville and special cousins Brenda Chambers Ellison and Sue Carty Collins. “ I was just thinking of Bill today & how much I miss talking to him. He used to call & order plumbing items from me when I worked for Walker's Supply Company and also when I came to Gray Hodges Corporation. Bill was a favorite of mine and I loved our conversations about travel & our love of our cats, especially. I can hear him asking for "a shower stall big enough for a hairy legged woman", haha!! Such a great personality. I knew he had passed a few years back, but did not know the date, which turns out to be the same as my birthday... I look forward to a Heavenly Reunion one day with "my friend". My belated condolences to the family.

“ Beverly,
We grieve with you for your loss of Bill. Our hearts are broken, and we pray daily for your comfort and peace, and for beautiful memories of your lives together. And you sure have a treasure of memories, until you are reunited with your loved ones someday. We'll miss him too, and all the wonderful hospitality in your home. I know he didn't really feel like it, but we are so happy he was able to come to Abby's wedding. That meant a lot to all of us, and we have those great pictures of him & you to remember. Bill was always so sweet and good to our family, and to everyone. I love you, and if there is anything at all that I can do for you, please let me know! And remember, God is with you every day as you learn to live in this world without Bill. His love will always be with you, and I'm sure you'll feel his spirit with you.
