“ When I saw Bobbie at any of the gatherings at her husband John's family (me known as aunt Debbie) a close friend of the family, she always made a point to talk to me. Last time being at Hannah's Helms birthday party. She came up on the pool deck to make sure I was doing OK under the umbrella John had put up of theirs for me, to shade me from the sun. She was telling me she had gotten the umbrella on sale last summer for cheap and couldn't pass up that deal. It is sad that Bobbie, my son Arron, and Kim Henderson all have died in the last 4 years. No matter the cause it seems to me that everyone who knew them should realize we are not promised another breath. Let alone another day. So I encourage each person who reads this post to look deep into your own lives and turn your hearts over to Jesus if you haven't already done so. To Bobbie Jo's parents I understand your grief all to well. No parent should ever have to bury their child at any age. I pray you find comfort in the days to come in knowing you can turn to God. To John, Bobbie Jo's children I am truly sorry for your loss. If you haven't given your life to Jesus I encourage you to do so. Go rest high on that mountain Bobbie Jo
