“ Our hearts are broken to hear of Bobby's passing. Daddy and the rest of our family loved him dearly. I always remembered how much he loved going to Aunt Hoobie's to visit and to have dinner. I still have many articles of Bobby in my scrapbook when he was Sheriff. He was the best. You will be missed dearly. Love from the Everett Stinson's Family.

“ I worked several years as a deputy under Bobby's administration. We went to many incidents that was tragic and dangerous at the same time, some were heart breaking. He always ,without fear, led the way for the rest of us to follow. He was strict about neatness, I was told many times to go home and shave, go get a hair cut, shine them boot and or take that car to the wash. But beneath that rough exterior was a soft heart ready to help the underprivileged. I obtained a great deal of knowledge under his command that helped me become a better peace officer . To all of his Family, if you need my help just ask. I will miss my old boss Sheriff Bobby Stinson.

“ I am sure sorry to hear about Bobby passing away. Our whole family loved Bobby. He was so good to Joy and me when we were growing up. Dad and Mom thought the world of him. Bobby and Dad would sit on the porch for hours and talk about old times. That Bobby was like our family. I pray for God to comfort his family and friends he leaves behind. We will all miss him. Rest In Peace Bobby Stinson. We will always remember you. 💔
