“ Oh man! I have tried to find Bruce Austin for the last few years. This man was extremely influential in my life in the early 1970's when I met him at Kent State University Eastway Center. He did so much for so many young people then. I had hoped to thank him for helping me during those days at Kent as a table tennis player but I did not get that done. I am so sorry for that. Bruce did an unbelievable job as recreation director as he set up tournaments in various sports and constantly encouraged all of us that were interested to get involved in the intramural programs. I Will never forget Bruce Austin and I am so sorry that I never was able to tell him that myself. He was a great person!! See you in heaven someday Bruce!!!
