“ Carolyn was one of the nicest people anyone would ever meet. Her soft southern drawl was a great example of Southern manners. I worked with her at Lays and then later at WalMart, if you couldn't get along with Carolyn then you couldn't get along with anyone, so easy going with everyone. So neat in everything she did. My deepest sympathy to all her family. Nancy Swanger

I knew Carolyn when she worked at Emerys five n dime and i worked at Super Dollar Bakery..Gene her husband was assistant mgr...she would come over to see Gene and grab her a warm do-nut.....Always so pretty, dressed so beautiful and soft spoken southern drawl that i just loved...her hair was always so pretty, not a hair out of place.....she was always kind to everyone, very polite and i just loved her....you couldn't help it....

Her brother Johnny was over Produce and always asked if i had seen him....she wanted to say hi to him before she left to go to work...

She was a "lady"

you will be missed Carolyn on this old earth but i really believe your walking on Gold...love you lady
