“ Sincere condolences to family and friends. I did not know your sweet loved one but I wanted to express my heartfelt sympathy anyway. I'm so very sorry for your loss and your pain. This is a journey you are now on that is so hard and unfair. Losing a child, grandchild, son, daughter, whichever and no matter their age is difficult to say the least. I too have walked this path and the pain is deep. My son passed at 6 years old and he never met a stranger. I have visions that he greets all who enter that beautiful place called Heaven. So, I hope you find comfort in knowing your loved one is at peace. No more suffering. She won her race and went ahead of you. May you find some happiness again soon in the memories you shared and may you find comfort in knowing others care and are praying. God bless you all during this very difficult time. Sending hugs.
