“ As another friend from the online game we played together, Chris made the game for me. Our conversations going late into the evening while he drove home from a long work trip were filled with so much laughter and fun. I will miss him so very much. Love to his family.

“ As one of his online gaming friends I cannot say enough about Chris. In a online world where you don't have to be "yourself" he was one of the rare players that was a true reflection of what he was in real life. Compassionate, funny, always willing to help, firm in his beliefs, but always ready to forgive. He will be greatly missed by so many, prayers to his family, the world has lost an amazing man. I feel blessed that I was able to call him a friend.

SPA my friend, I never once called you by your full name but, Sir Poops A Lot, that was because it would have made you laugh to see me actually type it for you. Almost 2 years of laughing using a game to be the conduit to the outside world. I will miss you.
