“ Christy was always a light to the world. Few people had the sweet caring spirit that filled her soul. Her never ending smile showed her love and kindness. I knew her most of her life and felt her positive energy every time I saw her. Our world has lost one of God’s best. RIP sweet lady.

“ Christy was a friend of mine. We ho back to elementary school. My sister and family rented a house from her and her dad. They lived next door. So we got very close throughout those years. Then Christy's daughter and my son went to school together and eere friends. It is hard to lose someone you love thats been a part of life. But she kept her faith and fought a good fight. Her journey here will be missed but I know God's plan is perfect and I trust that we will see her again. Until then rest in peace my friend,  I love you.

“ Christy and I graduated from CCHS together. We had some fun times. We got to see each other again when she worked in the CCHS cafeteria.
I knew she'd been sick; I guess I did not realize how sick.
I am happy that she is finally reunited with her precious daughter, and that she is no longer sick.
My prayers go out to all her family and friends.

“ I’m so sorry to learn of Christy’s death, but I’m also comforted to know she is reunited with her beautiful daughter. My memories of Christy go back to her student days at CCHS. Many years later I was privileged to write a feature story about her miraculous survival of a heart attack. She was a true fighter, a delightful personality, an excellent waitress, and a real firecracker! She will be missed.

“ My heart aches!! I've known Christy for along time, plus worked with her. At Cosby where she had her big heart attack. I'll always remember that terrible day. But Jesus wasn't ready for her then. He let her live 7 years more. She always thanked me and Danny Ray for saving her life but it was Jesus who saved her. He just let us help her. My heart is sad but I know she's not sick anymore! Praying for her family! Love, Debbie Hurst

Debra Hurst - April 04, 2025 at 11:36 AM

I've known Christy along time , helped her to get a job with Cocke County Food Service. She was such a joy to be around. Telling stories about her life each time I saw her. I loved her and she was a precious lady.

I'll never forget Christy helping us to keep an eye on my brother Steve. He would cook a big meal and she would come eat. If she cooked she would take him a plate. Thank the Lord for loving, kind, compassionate people. Prayers for family
