

Conley Glenn O'Dell

May 26, 1943 - June 3, 2014

Conley Glenn O'Dell was born on May 26, 1943 to Fred and Mae O'Dell. He left this life on June 3, 2014, following a four year battle with cancer. He leaves to cherish his memory a son, Michael O'Dell of White Pine, brother, Roger O'Dell of Cleveland, Ohio, sisters, Ilene Fry of Cincinnati, Ohio, Wilma O. Morgan, Barbara O. Davis and Judy O. Nease all of Newport. He also leaves brothers-in-law, Harry Fry, Phillip Morgan and Jim Davis, and sisters-in-law, Cornell O'Dell and Jean Shultz, along with many nieces, nephews and friends.

He was a farmer and loved mowing hay and taking care of cattle. Following a stroke, he lived the last two years of his life in Jefferson County Nursing Home where he was cared for by a loving staff. He left many friends there who will mourn his passing.

He fought life's battles with courage and now he has received his reward. The greatest event in his life happened on May 14, 2014 when he was Born Again. One of his favorite sayings was, "It'll be alright". It will truly be alright now that he is in the presence of the Lord.

A memorial service is being planned to celebrate his life.

Family and friends may sign the guest register on line at: www.manesfuneralhome.com.

Manes Funeral Home in charge.
