“Curtis and myself spent a lot of time working together the past 20 yrs usually somewhere in remote Alaska which gave us plenty of time to talk.

Two trips that comes to mind is he asked me what I would do if he and I came across a bear. I told him I'd scream like a girl and run. He laughed and said "Do you know what I would do"? Knowing Curtis I'm thinking he would pull out a large caliber handgun and end the problem.... Nope, Curtis said he would kick me in the knee and take off, lol.

Another great memory was shortly after my dad passed Curtis and I were driving and I told him my dad loved the song "On the Wings of a Snow White Dove". It couldn't of been a minute later he sang it to me, Wow that was a touching moment I didn't know Curtis could sing. You will be deeply missed Curtis,
God Bless ,
