“ In Memory of Danny Taylor

Danny Taylor had an affinity for Elvis, red shirts, good coleslaw, and the WWE. He was always ready with a joke or a funny story—sometimes a little blush-worthy, but always worth the laugh.

Some of my favorite memories with him were spent sitting on the porch, listening to music. He loved the sounds of the '50s and '60s and was quick to point out the exact moment the Beatles' music “got weird with all those sitar instruments.”

I'll miss birdwatching with you, Mr. Taylor. I'm hoping heaven has plenty of birds and even better porches.

Rest today in peace.

Prayers requested for Doris Taylor and Mike Taylor during this difficult time.

“ Danny loved and touched everyone he met. He was once my boss, then my friend and even accepted my children as his own grandchildren. While we have moved from that area, social media kept us in touch. We loved him and will miss him. Our prayers go to Doris and the girls, that they feel the love of God and feel his comforting hands at this time.
