“ Really sorry to hear of Dennis passing. He was one of my assistant Manager's a long time ago. We sure had a lot of laughs & good times. I was fortunate enough to get to go on a benefit motorcycle ride with him a couple years ago & "catch up" a little and talk about our children. It's hard to think about Dennis & not smile. He will be missed . God Bless .

“ I met Dennis when he became my homebound physical therapist a few years back. I appreciated his professionalism, his gentle manner and his easy smile. As we talked, we soon discovered we shared mutual friends and decided it really is a small world. I soon grew to trust in Dennis and his advice on physical therapy for me. Now, we all know, physical therapy is work, but Dennis somehow managed to make that physical work easier. A difficult task he has mastered. At the end of each therapy session, Dennis asked me to talk a long walk, and I told him jokingly, "Well, I'll walk as long as you tell me to as long as you walk my little dog as I walk??" From then on, Dennis walked my sweet Tripper every visit, and boy, did Tripp get excited each time Dennis showed up!! He just loved him. Such a kind and gentle man. He enriched my life by simply meeting him. I believe he now rests in the arms of Jesus, and, I pray peace for his precious family and friends as they mourn his passing. Rest in the promise that Jesus proclaims, we will see our loved ones again.

“ Adam and Cole,

My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family during this difficult time. I know what you're going through. I lost my momma January 2022, and I miss her so much. It's something you'll never get over, but God will get you through.

May God bring peace and comfort to both of you and Kelly in your time of need.

“ Heidi, We will keep you and the boys in our prayers. I cannot imagine losing the love of my life and the father of my children. Dennis was a great man with a contagious smile and love for others. He rests in a greater place, far better than we can ever imagine. There will come a day when you will see him again and rejoice with the Almighty. No tears. No sadness. Eternal worship. John 16:22 “So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.”
