“ *Wanda, Roger, Ronnie, and All:
So sorry to learn of Don’s passing. Such memories come flooding back of ours days playing Tarzan in the hayloft of the old barn, damming up the creek, hunting guinea eggs, and simply prowling from dawn until dark. I can still see Don catching catfish with his bare hands and being fascinated when one sliced the palm of his hand open. May memories such as these comfort you in the coming days. Kay joins me in praying for angels to walk beside you.*
