“ I’m so sorry to see that Doyle passed away. Sorry I didn’t see the obituary till just recently. We were very good friends back in the early 90’s while he lived in Atlanta. He was always outgoing and never met a stranger. We fell out of touch over the years but I never forgot him. May he rest in peace until we all meet again.

“ Mildred my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in your time of sadness. Doyle has a much bigger smile on his face now than he ever did here on this earth and he always had a smile to share with everyone he met.

“ This poem is the voice of Doyle speaking to us. But it will be delivered by me with My New York accent so use your imagination to hear this as Doyle's voice in his sweet Southern accent.á "Let Me Go" Anoná We've known lots of pleasure,á At times endured

“ Doyle has touched my life as he did so many in Kingston, NY. We all had a close "dog" relationship and loved each other just the way our dogs did (unconditionally). We were blessed to have met the family and be at Doyle's side in his time of passing. M
