“ Oh how it hurts my heart to hear about Lorene passing. If you ever had the pleasure of eating at her table or in the woods she would make a feast if you left hungry that was your fault. My thoughts & prayers are with all of you. Fly high my beautiful friend.

“ Mamaw Lorene, it's hard to share just a memory. One that sticks out is back at the house on Shag Rd. My brother and I would catch catfish and Mamaw standing at the sink cleaning the fish as fast as we could catch them. You will be missed! I love you, Mamaw. Thanks for always letting me "shop" in your canning room.

“ Lorene, "Mammaw" to my sons was such a kind, caring and generous person. She took care of so many around her. She loved to cook and cooked enough to feed an army every weekend, and everyone came throughout the day. My fondest memory was when she and dad came to visit us in Hawaii. It was a wonderful adventure for all of us. She will be sorely missed.

I'm so sorry that some very important people were left out of the obituary. Please know that it was not on purpose but the fact that one person was trying to remember an entire legacy of a great lady who loved us all very dearly.

“ *I'm an aunt of her granddaughter Codi walker Phillips and I have to say that she loved Codi and her great great grandchildren Kagan, Leeah, Avery, and Hudson with all her ❤️ and soul. They were the only little children in her life for years she (Lorene) cherished every moment and memory they shared together. I wonder if when the great grandchildren will read the obituary one day and ask ,y their names weren't in it? The simple truth of the matter is that Codi and her children will have memories to keep in their hearts forever with their mamaw and great mamaw that No one can erase or take away.
