Edna Dean Wilson

(December 29, 1937- October 4, 2018)

Edna Dean Wilson, age 80, of Stone Mountain Georgia passed away Thursday, October 4th 2018.

Edna was an avid gardener and loved tending to her native plants and wildflowers. She devoted her life to helping others, first as a nurse and then as a counselor and teacher in higher education. Her time spent with family and friends were her most cherished memories. She loved the beach, the mountains, and her time walking and hiking. She was preceded in death by her husband Lemmy Wilson; parents Walter and Mary O'Dell Murr; sisters, Della McNabb (Connie), Dora Lee Greer (Bill), and Francis Marshall (Carroll); and brothers Charles and Fred Murr. She is survived by her daughter DeAnna Jackson and husband Bill and son Dean Hilton and wife Susan; three grandchildren: Kathleen Jackson, Elena Hilton, and Kevin Hilton. She is also survived by her brother, Rev. Bill Murr (Marlene) and sister Mary Ellen Strange and a host of nieces, nephews, and great friends. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to either The Boys and Girls Club, PO Box 1639 Newport, TN 37822 or The Episcopal Church-Annunciation, 304 Cosby Hwy, Newport, TN 37821 where she was a faithful member for many years. A celebration of life will be held at Manes Funeral Home Chapel at 2:00 pm, Sunday October 14th with Rev. David Garrett and Rev. Scott Gorrell officiating. Ashes will be scattered at the Episcopal Church-Annunciation memory garden following the celebration of life. The family will receive friends from 12:00pm -2:00pm at Manes Funeral Home prior to the celebration of life. Family and friends may sign the guest register online at www.manesfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements by Manes Funeral Home.

“ DeAnna and Bill, Dean and Susan: I sure did love Edna. When we talked on the phone or in person we would laugh out loud til we cried. Her laugh was contagious. She was a GOOD woman, and she sure did love her family unconditionally. I sure missed her
