“ To Mrs. Jean Koop and Family, I was sorry to hear of your loss. I worked with Ed way back in the mid 70's while assigned to the 20th District. He and his partner Bob Jellen and my partner Terry McGovern were all on the same watch back then. Ed was a very good police officer and had prior knowledge from the Skokie P,D.

God Bless you and your family;

“ Dear Jean,

Sorry to hear about Ed passing. Ed was friends with my brother and I met him through the Chicago Police Department and Chicago Gearheads Car Club. Ed was the Godfather of my daughter Kylie. When Ed would visit she would sit on Ed's lap and watch the lion king over and over again. We lost touch when he moved to Tennessee. He was a very good friend and person.

With sympathy,

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ed when he was on the Skokie Police Dept. Although he left to join the Chicago P.D. we remained friends through the years. R. I.P. sir.
