

Emma Lee Stokely Williams

December 19, 1919 - August 12, 2014

Emma Lee Stokely Williams passed away on August 12, 2014 following an extended illness. Born in Newport, TN on December 19, 1919, Mrs. Williams was the daughter of the late Marvin Murray Stokely and Emma Robinson Stokely. A long-time resident of Hilton Head Island, SC and Brevard, NC, Mrs. Williams was most recently a resident of the Jane Bruce Guignard Neighborhood of the Still Hopes Episcopal Retirement Community in West Columbia, SC. Mrs. Williams was preceded in death by her husband Thomas Howard Williams, USN (Ret), her son Robert Turner Morison, as well as her brothers Murray Marvin Stokely and Dave Robinson Stokely. Survivors include her niece Wylene Stokely (Edward) Holder of Greenville, SC nephews Dave (Darlene) Stokely of Charleston, SC, Morgan (Joyce) Stokely of Columbia, SC, and Murray Stokely of Jacksonville, FL, cousin Beth Runnion of Newport, as well as numerous great and great-great nephews and nieces. A graveside service will be held at Union Cemetery (Newport) on August 20, 2014 at 1:00 pm with Scott Gorrell officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be directed to the Still Hopes Employee Assistance Fund (Still Hopes Episcopal Retirement Community, P. O. Box 2959, West Columbia, SC 29171). Manes Funeral Home (Newport) is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Emma Lee Stokely Williams

November 17, 2022 at 06:00 PM

“ Emma Lee was the widow of my friend and Naval Academy Classmate, Tom Williams. My wife, Trilby, visited them many times in Hilton Head, Tom was a submarine Shipmate for several years. Emma Lee was a lovely wife and friend. RIP-Max

Capt. Max C. Duncan USN(Ret) - December 24, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Emma Lee Stokely Williams

Mary Ann & Jay Chrisman - August 14, 2014 at 12:00 AM