

Frances Burrill

March 11, 1926 - February 11, 2011

The light of the star went out when Frances Jean Burrill (84) of Newport, TN passed peacefully on Friday, February 11, 2011. Mrs. Burrill was born March 11, 1926 in Dayton, OH where she resided until 1968. She then moved to Florida living there for 37 years; a large part of that time she lived aboard the MamaSita with her beloved husband Roger. Frances spent the last 1 1/2 of her life in Newport, TN. She lived her life through her great love of the arts. She performed in the community theater, taught sculpting, volunteered at both local art galleries and community centers with disadvantaged youth. Her greatest creative outlet was through her love of clay, many pieces of her work were displayed in art galleries in both Port Charlotte and the Florida Keys. Her passions included: animals, boating, gardening, fishing and dancing. She was preceded in death by her husband Roger Burrill, parents Dorthy and Elmer Kleinhaus. She is survived by her three children: Gary Ryan, Bryan Kearns, and Lynn Manuel; her daughter and son in laws: Lynn Ryan and Craig Manuel; her grandchildren: Chris Reyes, Jenny Wines, Seth Kearns, Amy Ryan, Christopher Ryan, Nolan Manuel, and Evan Manuel; great grandchildren Lindsey and Carly Wines and her good friend Peggy Black. A celebration of Frances life will be held in Damon, Texas. She will be greatly missed, and will always be loved. Life is like a garden, pull the weeds, cherish the flowers, then move on.....the stars are waiting.
