“ Frances, thank you so much for all the stories you shared throughout the years with me about you and Mom's (Rosemary Robinson Hartsell) adventures. I will cherish them all. They were always hilarious, Mom laughingly always denied them, and you were somehow always innocent at the end of each one. You're ending phrase was always "somebody had to live to tell the story". You will be truly missed by everyone who crossed paths with you. GO VOLS!! Love you much my dear cousin. Georgette Hartsell
