“ *If New Testament scriptures were still being written today, Brother Frank Smiths name may well be mentioned among them that followed CHRIST. "Yes he was that kind of a man" Frank layed his treasures up in heaven where moth nor rust could corrupt and thieves could not break through and steal. Thank you Frank for passing this way. “ We’ve known Frank Smith most of our lives. He was a true example of being a very humble man. A Christian man that tried to set that way of life every day. He will be missed from the old to the young. He an his precious wife Deane was always a joy to see coming to church with a smile on his face. They went hiking, exercised three days a week at Volunteer Fitness that amazed everyone there, I could go on & on about his long life. Now, we pray for his absence for Deane & his brothers & sisters in Christ.
