“ To Donald, Ronald, and Stacy and families: Barbara and I send our deepest sympathy. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Frankie Munn was a true “original”...a “one of a kind.” These adjectives are often used to describe numerous individuals, but in Frankie’s case, they definitely apply 100%. I knew him as a co-worker; a golfing partner and opponent; and a true friend. At one time he carried a one dollar bill that I was required to sign and date the first time he ever beat me in a round of golf. From time to time, he would pull it from his wallet and wave it at me with that sly grin, just to keep my britches the correct size. He was someone I trusted implicitly, as I knew he would tell me what he truly believed... the truth as he saw it... rather than something he thought I wanted to hear. He will be missed.

Rest in peace dear friend. I look forward to teeing it up with you again, when I get there.

“ Stacy, Ronnie, Donald and families, I am so sorry to hear about Frankie. He was one of kind and a great friend to me and my family. Frankie spent a lot of time with us out at the West End Exxon when I was there and we always had so much fun, especially when he had something to say to somebody in his "subtle, kind way" of saying things. So many sweet memories. He will sure be missed.. You are all in our thought and prayers .
