“ *Our family got to know Fred when we moved to Arnie Carroll's home place. Arnie always spoke highly of Fred and we soon understood why . Fred was always willing to help us in anyway he could. He taught me how to hook up the mowing machine to cut the hay when we first bought the Carroll home place. After Arnie died I ran into Fred several times. He was a patient at the hospital I worked at. He told me good stories about his family. Our deepest condolences to you all in your loss of this fine man.
