“ My deepest condolences to the family. I just seen the announcement. I am a relative and was daughter to Pauline Ailor Davis. Have so many fond memories when visiting with the family when I was younger. Freddie, as we called him was always outstanding, talented and I tried to keep up someway over the years, however, it has been a few years since we last talked and caught up with family news. So proud of his life, excited when he became Judge in Parrotsville, Tn. Billy, remember you well, hugs too you as I know Freddie is going to be missed tremendously. “ I am so sorry for your loss. I pray for God’s comfort during your sadness. Freddy was a friend of mine for over 25 years. He always had a kind heart and a sweet smile to share each time I saw him. He loved his beautiful wife and daughter and his friends. He loved his country and the hometown he lived in. He took pride in turkey hunting and his arrowhead collection. His eyes would always light up as he talked about God, he knew the power in prayer. I trust he is in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father and one sweet day I will see him again. Our loss is truly Heavens gain, until we meet again RIP.
