“ Pete was my mother's first cousin through her aunt Ella. Mom (Sarah Haney Baine) always said he was one of her favorites. So sorry to see of his passing. Our sympathy for you all.

“ Prayers of comfort for the family and friends left behind. I have great memories of the couple times I visited Pete in Kingsport, or the long phone calls we had. He had such a strong memory and way of telling his stories. Of his younger days, his Daddy Doug, the music, the cars, his eternal love of Eula and their years together. I thought a lot of Cousin Pete, and will miss him much. Ernie Horne SC

“ We are so sorry we just seen the obituary on Wednesday. No one told us. Brandon and Michael would have been there. Broken hearts.

“ I’m sorry for those grieving. May the peace of God shadow all of that. My uncle Pete was always kind to me and I’m glad I got to hear him and my aunt eula sing and play at the nursing homes. My mom “Boop” always thought the world of him. We will all meet again up yonder.
