“ What a lovely service. I am grateful to have the opportunity to worship along with family and dear friends despite distance and time. Back in the old days of Redeemer, Gladys and Mary Clark welcomed and trained me in the counting ministry. We joked every week about how far we could potentially go if we were to abscond with the offering- a good week we could get as far as St. Augustine!

Gladys and I served together and we cemented a wonderful, mentoring fellowship. I last talked to Gladys on Christmas morning several years ago. She called me in Little Rock- never letting distance separate us for too long! Gladys was easy to love and shared her love so generously. I image she and Mary will show me the ropes again- in His heavenly realm.

“ Living 96 years is quiet a life. So thankful we were able to meet her. She had an infectious smile that would warm anyones heart. My only regret is I didn't get to have a proper tea with her. I'm sure she could have educated me on having tea as they do in England. May God's comfort be felt in this time of sorrow. Anita & Wayne

To Andrea, Connie
Bonnie and Tommy.
I loved aunt gladdy so much. I wish I could have gone to see her. she called me all the time and we talked about so many things As her mind got worst, she remember less. She talked about your dad and her mother..I loved your grandmother also. I would always ask her to fix me some tea and crumpets and she would say you can get them at the store..I loved all Gladdy's memories about her childhood in England and the nites in the castle. She said she would go to her bedroom with a candle, maybe then they had no electricty and she would read spooky books. I will cherish all my memories with her and your grandmother.
