“ Dear Dad,

You will be missed by all. Glad God gave us you and we were able to share in some memorable moments that we will never forget, in all those times we had spent together. We know you are in the presence of the Lord now and there can be no greater place of joy, as you too always made us smile! We'll all see you again when we get to heaven, as the Lord sees fit to call us home; no more goodbyes.

*Your loving Son,
David Lee Moberley and family*

“ Michelle and family, it deeply saddens me to know Harry has passed. He was one of the brightest spots in my work days at WalMart. Always smiling , telling some tidbit, he was one of those special people that lifted others up. He deeply loved all of you he wore that proudly. In some ways I didn't know him well in other ways I did. He talked of traveling in rv going to the beach, Buffalo, Washington. Proud of his Coast Guard son, his grandkids and his highly intelligent wife (for marrying him). He was definitely special and I grieve him as well. My thoughts and prayers are with you all in the coming days. A true southern gentleman will be missed. Nancy Swanger

“ Michelle, Page and Mike, I have only just heard of Harry's death and am so sorry. He was one of the funniest men I've ever known. I still tell one of his jokes about a paper sack. If I can help, let me know.

“ Our hearts are breaking for Harry's family. We have only known this Proud Marine for a few years, but in that time, he stole our hearts. To us, he was the epitome of a Southern Gentleman. He was always ready with a kind smile, a warm hug or a handshake. He was a pretty funny guy, always ready with a good joke. The room lit up when he walked in. Godspeed and Semper Fi Marine. You will be missed
