“ Heather, My sweet girl from A very little girl, You had so much to offer this world but guess God needed you more than the world did. I had such hope for you that you be able to turn things around. It doesn't matter now. We just have to learn to live without you. I had just ask your mom about within a hour to find out you received your wing. Fly high my sweet girl. Xox Deb Carter

“ Mona my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I pray for God's strength to get you and your family through this. I didn't know Nikki, but you spoke of her so often I feel I do. Being a giving person must come from her first example, YOU. Much love, hug's, and prayers!

“ Well. You left earth but not gone from our hearts and you never will. Heather used me as her tester of many things from food to clothes. She was a giving person is why she never had very much for herself. She often gave me some type of clothing and food for me to try. With a sparkle in her she she would say " Here Daddy try this and can you use this. " She loved strays .. May be a cat or maybe a person. She cared for homeless animals and humans. She will be sorely missed. She knew what kind of music I like and would play it as I listened to her sing. I could write a lot about her but I will save it to tell her when we meet at the feet of Jesus. This world has lost another very caring person . Caring people are taken advantage of and she is a victim of that crowd. Rest in peace. This world's trials are over and am sure you are glad.

“ My beautiful wife and as always my " babygirl" was taken before her many acts of kindness to others were finished. She always had a kind word to say about everyone she met. She was everything to me. She helped me understand so much that I never could have without her. She always wanted to help everyone she met. She tried to save the world by herself and that was her goal. A more compassionate person than Heather just didn't exist. I'll see you again soon in heaven babygirl. You were truly my all. Untill then I'm "Jealous of the Angels"

“ It feels like years but it has only been days,
And yet that is still too long.
I still love you the same as if you were still here with me, laughing during the good times and crying during the bad ones.
I miss being able to call you any time and spend hours talking about everything under the sun.
As children we were practically joined at the hip,
But we grew up and grew apart, as most siblings do.
We had our own set of friends and our own set of goals for our lives, but that still didn't change the fact that we were sisters.
There was nothing that I wouldn't do for you and nothing that you wouldn't do for me.
I always wish you were still here with me enjoying life,
But I can understand why God would want such a beautiful angel on his side from now until eternity.
Just know that I love and miss you,
And this is the tribute to you, my big sister.

“ Heather was my first born, she was a very smart and adventurous child. She loved animals and brought home every stray that she ever came across and it didn't matter if it was a turtle or a kitten and this lasted throughout her life. She loved music, it was her passion and she had a beautiful voice and she loved all genre's but her true favorite was gospel music and she sang with the church for some time. Heather had a huge and kind heart, she wanted to help everyone she met no matter how big or small their needs were be it a ride, food, clothes or a place to lay their head or just someone to listen and I believe she thought she could save the world all by herself. Heather loved everyone and mostly everyone loved her back especially children and the elderly and all she ever wanted was to be loved back. She sure loved her family and she always said she could never leave me especially. She has two sons who lit up her world, she was so proud of her sons and would have done anything in the world for them and would have gone to the ends of this earth for them if need be, she loved, truly loved them unconditionally they could have done no wrong in her eyes and didn't. She has a little grandson who made her life complete and she was so amazed by him and everything he did and you could see the love in his eyes when he looked at her, he would follow her every move and he would mock her when she least expected and make her laugh. Unfortunately he probably will not remember her and that is so, so sad because he will never know how much she loved him. He brought her so much happiness and joy, she wanted him to have everything. Of course like any child she made me a little crazy at times but she brought me so much joy and happiness, she knew how to make me laugh and there wasn't a day went by that she didn't tell me she loved me, no matter where she was or the circumstance. She was my "Blue Eyes" and always will be. Goodbye my baby until we meet again in Heaven. Right now this Momma is jealous of the Angels and I will miss your beautiful voice singing, don't stop singing baby and maybe just maybe I can hear you in my dreams. ❤️🙏

“ I'll never forget the good times we had as children. You were always there for me and had my back no matter the situation. Wether it was the long winter days out playing in the snow or Sunday drives during the summer you were always full of joy, laughter, and lots of love. You were an influence in more ways than you will ever know and will forever be missed but will always be in my heart. I love you big sister and look forward to the day we meet again.
