

Hilda Steelman Coggins

February 17, 1933 - April 11, 2023

Hilda Steelman Coggins, age 90, went to her Heavenly Home on April 11, 2023. Hilda was a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and friend to all. She was a faithful member of the Newport Church of God of the Union Assembly. She was a talented singer, songwriter, seamstress, and a wonderful cook, known for her chicken and dumplings.

She was born in Del Rio, TN, on February 17, 1933, to the late Charles and Edna Steelman. She spent her childhood in Wolf Creek surrounded by her six siblings, many cousins, and countless friends. She later moved to Cleveland, OH, where she met and married her husband, her love of 59 years, Carl Coggins. They were the proud parents of five children.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Carl Coggins; sisters Beatrice Ricker and Suzanne Amoroso; brother Bud Steelman; and son-in-law Randy Denton.

Hilda is survived by her daughters Berneice (Wayne) Rawdon, Doris Cannon, Lynnette (Randy) Denton, and Laura (Ronald) Munn, all of Newport; son Donald Coggins of Des Moines; sister Mary McMahan of Jacksonville, NC; sister Violet (Ray) Lindsay and brother Charles (Rose) Steelman of Fletcher, NC. Hilda is the beloved grandmother of eleven grandchildren, and many great and great-great-grandchildren.

Hilda will be greatly missed by her loved ones, but all take comfort in knowing she is with her Lord and Savior, and that one day we will meet again.

The family will receive friends at Manes Funeral Home from 5-7pm on Friday, April 14, 2023, followed by services, officiated by Pastor Greg Vassar. Burial services will be held at Union Cemetery at 10am on Saturday, April 15, 2023.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to her church, Newport Church of God of the Union Assembly.

Family and friends may sign guest register online at:www.manesfuneralhome.com

“ Hilda was a godly woman that took care of many many kids. I was one of those kids. As a child, my parents had a campground near her house in Rankin. Angie and I made many trips back and forth between the campground and her house. She and Carl always made sure we had eaten. She welcomed me in her home just like the other kids. Then a few short years later, Lynnette and I began teaching together. Hilda still was the same sweet soul. She was a wonderful lady and I will never forget her kindness to me and my family. Prayers for this special family as I know they are heartbroken.
