“ My dear Hilda. How I shall miss you and your wonderful laughter. We shared so much over the years—love, happiness, pain and encouragement. You will forever be in my heart, my sweet friend. You were always there for me, and I hope I eased your pain when you needed a shoulder to lean on. Tell Jesse, Gordon and your sisters hello. Know they have been waiting for you. May God hold you gently in His arms. Goodnight.

“ Michelle, I am so sad to hear about Hilda's passing. We became friends when we went to college together at Tusculum. She was such a special lady, so smart and funny. I admired her so much. She was such an inspiration to me. We had some good times together. May she live on in our memories. Praying for support and comfort for the family during this sad time.
