

Hubert Cecil Henry

August 20, 1940 - December 27, 2020

Hubert Cecil Henry, age 80 of Chestnut Hill, joined the heavenly angels Sunday, December 27, 2020.

He retired from Bush Brothers and loved riding horses, raising cattle, and watching basketball.

He was preceded in death by his parents William and Lucy Lane Henry, several brothers and sisters, and special friend and sidekick Rickey Derrick.

He is survived by his wife Sue of 51 years, his proud son W.D. (Jill) Henry, his pride and joy, granddaughter Chasity Henry, special nephew Freddy (Pat) Henry, sister Carolyn Deneau of Erin, TN, brother Jack (Sara) Henry of Newport, TN, several nieces and nephews, and a large host of friends.

Family and friends may drop by Manes Funeral Home, Saturday, January 2, 2021 from 10:00 am-4:00 pm and sign the guest register.

Graveside Service will be at 1:00 pm, Sunday, January 3, 2021 at Resthaven Memorial Gardens with Stacey Morgan officiating. Burial will follow.

Per CDC guidelines, please practice safe social distancing and face mask are highly recommended.

Family and friends may sign the guest register online at www.manesfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements by Manes Funeral Home.

“ Wayne and I are so sorry about the passing of Hubert. We cared so much for him as well as the rest of his family. I treasure my Tennessee family more than you will ever know. We are saddened that we are now missing Hubert but it is some comfort to know that he is with Jesus. Our love and prayers go out to Sue and WD and his sweet family. Condolences from the Texas and Alaska family members as well. We love you all.

“ Uncle Hubert is a positive memory from my childhood. Spending summer days with him, Aunt Sue, and WD were days where I learned about life and a strong work ethic. Having him as my basketball coach was where I developed the love of basketball--and to be aggressive on the court. Distance and time only hinder the present because the memories are forever cherished. With love and prayers, Karen
