“ Prayers for the family!

I love this family! We attended Rankin Baptist Church together and were great friends!

This is a funny story... Pat and I were always clowning around so one Sunday at church, I went and sat down between Pad & J.D.

... Little did I know it was their anniversary so when the church recognized this and sang to them, with all eyes on us... there I sat.. right smack dab in the middle of them! We laughed about this for years.

... Heaven will good when we can all sing together again with Jesus the center of attention!!

“ I'm sorry to see this. J .D. And I was raised up in the Dutch bottoms era went to church together. His dad lead the singing at church. My dad when younger was always invited to the ball reunion that was held at the grandfathers home. I have a pic of my daddy eating out of a bowl of banana pudding that grandma ball took to him knowing how he loved it. My family and the balls were great friends.i have a lot of memories with the family. It's sad another one has pass.
Prayers for the famly.
