

James Waylon Gossett

June 5, 2007 - May 10, 2026

James Waylon "Goose" Gossett passed away on May 10, 2026.

He is preceded in death by his uncle: Bryant Jasper "BJ" Dalton, his grandparents: Wessie and Karen "Quick" Webb, his great grandparents: Charles Lovell and Bessie Sue Lovell.

Waylon is survived by his parents Chuck & Bryna Gossett, Newport, brother Jasper Gossett, Newport, grandparents Jim & Kathy Gossett, Newport, Edna (Marty) Hurst, Newport, Bryant (Cathy) Dalton, Sevierville. Uncles: Scott Gossett, Newport, Bryant Jr. (Andrea) Dalton, Dandridge, Aunts: Frances Weeks, Cosby, Melissa (Marco) Galloni, Crossville, Amanda Green, Sevierville, Jerri Hamilton, Sevierville. Special cousins Derek, Gary, Hannah, Megan and Caleb. Special family friends: Arville (Amy) Norton, Derrick (Brittany) Ottinger, Brandy Smallwood, Mike Ottinger and Joe Ottinger, all of Newport.

Waylon was born June 5, 2007 in Knoxville, TN. He came into the world fighting and always had a smile on his face. He was scheduled to graduate CCHS May 16, 2026 and attend MMI in Florida in the fall of this year. Waylon was an active member of Dutch Bottoms Baptist Church and a member of the Centerview Volunteer Fire Department. He was a CTE letterman earning many awards & recognition. He had a love and passion for trucks and motorcycles. Waylon was loved by everyone in the community. He was always the gentle giant ready to help anyone who needed him. He loved his family, friends and hometown.

The family will receive friends from 4 p.m. - 7 p.m., Wednesday, May 13, 2026 with a Celebration of Life following at 7 p.m. at Dutch Bottoms Baptist Church with Rev. Michael Strange officiating.

In lieu of flowers the family prefers donations to Dutch Bottoms Church.

Family and friends may sign the guest register online at www.manesfuneralhome.com.

“ I had the pleasure of being Waylon’s third and fourth grade teacher. He was such an amazing kid, always polite and kind. I enjoyed talking with him about basically anything that had a motor on it. I hadn’t seen him for a few years, but I can only imagine the young man he became. My deepest sympathies to all his family and friends. He will be deeply missed.

“ Waylon was a former coworker of mine, and a best friend to my son! He was always happy and always had a HUGE smile on his face even when he talked. He was very kind and very sweet. A wonderful human being. There are no words to explain my deepest sympathy for his family, his mother and his father. He will be dearly missed.! My prayers and thoughts go out to his whole entire family and friends.
Rest easy my friend,
Shannon Jarnigan

There are simply no words deep enough for the heartbreak of losing someone so young. My heart aches for Waylon's family, friends, and everyone who loved him. Nineteen is far too soon, and no family should ever have to endure such a devastating loss.

Please know that so many people are holding you close in their thoughts during this unimaginable time. May you find comfort in the love surrounding you and in the memories of Waylon that will live on forever.

“ I am asking my Lord and Savior to give sweet Bryna and Francis, Jasper, his daddy, and all his family! I was blessed to teach Waylon. One of the most respectful kiddos I ever taught. His momma did a phenomenal job teaching him love, respect, and he loved the Lord! He went to church with me and hugged me every Sunday night. I forever will miss you and see you at that gate Waylon! Miss Kara loves you forever. God bless you Bryna. I am praying for your strength! 🙏
