

Jane Elizabeth Kurial

June 3, 1937 - April 27, 2025

Jane Elizabeth Kurial went home to heaven with her Lord on Sunday, April 27, 2025. She was born in Newville, IN on June 3, 1937 as the last of 5 children. Moving to Tampa, FL in the late 70s, she spent her life as a dedicated Mother and Grandma. She loved volunteering for the local hospital and humane society, where she earned the award for being the longest serving volunteer at the hospital.

She moved from Tampa to Newport in 2016 and settled at Wellington Assisted Living. There she made many friends with fellow residents and staff. She was a member of Holy Trinity Lutheran church in Newport but most recently attended Crossroads Community Church with her family. She loved spending her Sundays listening to Rick Clevenger preach and eating Sunday lunch at Romesa Faison's house (Jeremy's Mother).

She is the mother of 4 children, Debra Gamso (Tom), Doug Kurial (Cindy), Craig Kurial (Lisa), and Miriam Faison (Jeremy). Her family grew from there to include 13 grandchildren, Isabel, Nathanael, Lindsay, Sarah, Rebekah, Joey, Emily, Hannah, Beka, Reagan, Gage, Asher, and Tucker. Her family continued to grow to include 14 great grandchildren Ellie, Turner, Dean, Eli, Miles, Olivia, Violet, AJ, Vivian, Abigail, River, Eden, Little girl on the way, and Zion.

A celebration of her life will be held in Tampa, Florida on June 7th. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in memory of Jane Kurial to Crossroads Community Church in Newport, TN.

Our Mom and Grandma's legacy will live on but we will greatly miss her kind spirit, warm smile, and concern for each of us.

Family and friends may sign the guest register and view the video tribute online at www.manesfuneralhome.com.
