“ Mrs Porter was my first high school English teacher, and a wonderful lady. I remember studying Shakespeare for the first time in her class, which was memorable. She inspired me to attend The University of Tennessee although I never got to thank her. Kenneth and his father before him was our attorney over the years before he became a judge. My sympathies to the family.

“ While news of Janet's death was not unexpected, it still hurts. We have proudly claimed our relationship as 'decent cousins' for many years through our connections through the Sisk-Gray-Lillard families. One of my fondest memories is of the day she organized a get-together with her mom, Aunt Dorothy, Uncle Mulford, and Aunt Dean so they could share their stories about their mother, Cousin Lizzie. Of course, Janet served lunch, using her good china, sterling, and crystal. All of this was for my book on the Sisk family. We also worked together at CCHS for many years, played countless rounds of bridge, and swapped stories every Tuesday at Chicken Biscuit Club. Quite simply, I loved my 'Decent Cousin' and will miss our chats. Until we meet again.
