“ I've known Jeremy since he was in fifth grade. He could make you laugh so hard you peed your pants. He would always tell me how happy he was because he was coming to know Jesus and he was changing his life around. He was my best friend and like a brother to me. We may have our differences but we always tried to talk to one another. Jeremy this isn't good by my friend this is till next time. I will always have you in my heart and memories. Rest in heavenly peace.

“ There’s so many memories of Jeremy but the one that came to my mind the night that I heard about his accident was my son’s bike accident. Jeremy was there with him when it happened and ran to get help. If he hadn’t done that then who knows what would’ve happened to Corey. I’m always going to be thankful for him doing that. He will never be forgotten ever. You all are in my thoughts and prayers ❤️ Love Candy.
