“ I'll always remember pulling in to the parking lot at Calvary Baptist Church and Seeing Joann and Imegene setting there on the steps in their work clothes where they had just come from Gatlingburg. I was very proud to be her pastor for 4 years, Rest in peace dear lady, you have earned your Rest. prayers and blessings to all the family.

“ JoAnn and Lester were two of first people I met in 1994 when I first moved here in Newport. They were the kindest and my friends. JoAnn took me under her wings and treated me like a daughter. She taught me canning, sewing, cooking, baking home made biscuits and never judged me. I will meet them on the other side. Linda.

“ One of my fondest memories of Joann was going up to her house and killing hogs and she would cook the fresh pork meat and biscuits and gravy and we would sit at her table and laugh and joke and enjoy the company of the Stuart family. She always had loving words to say. Sometimes they might smart just a little, but they were always spoken with true love. She will be missed.
